Issue 12

AT YOUR SERVICE

by Kim O'Donnell

On Friday, November 19, I took a vacation day prior to which I had scheduled numerous tasks to be completed at our home. A co-worker asked me if I was going to do anything fun during my day off to which I replied, "if meeting technicians, workmen and service representatives is fun, then yes"! Appliances always breakdown the week before a holiday. Thus, the day began with the dishwasher installation team installing a new dishwasher and hauling away the old one. They exited just in time for me to meet the man from the irrigation company who came to winterize the sprinkler system. Luckily, he was able to assist the furniture delivery company as a new chair had to be toted up a flight of stairs, requiring a two person team. Shortly thereafter, the G.E technician appeared to survey the gas cooktop, order parts, register me for the shop4GE.com site and schedule a return visit to complete the job he came for initially. Then, the electrician arrived to install the new doorbell and additional exterior security cameras. Lastly, the window washing crew began dismantling the 6' x 6' storm windows which were in dire need of cleaning. Prior to that, the yard clean up began which resulted in bagging twenty, 55-gallon lawn bags and the pin oak has not dropped its leaves yet! Home ownership has its rewards and responsibilities - aren't you glad you live at Trezevant?

Welcome our new seamstress Anne Thompson, of Divine Stitches! Anne comes highly recommended and will be here monthly beginning Friday, December 10th. Join us in the Clubroom Manor 310 from 10am-1pm for coffee and muffins. Anne will be at Trezevant the second Friday of each month to assist with your alteration needs. A price list may be obtained from my office.

Just one more reason you can be glad that you live at Trezevant!

Sunday, December 26th at 10:30am come join us for our first Sunday of the Christmas season with worship and holy communion. Special music provided by Jane Crum.

Chaplains' classes and other special events:

Chaplains' class: Wednesday December 1st, 8th and 15th at 3pm "They Still Spark Wonder: The New Testament Christmas Stories Again." Come and join Dr. Mitzi Minor in this wonderful advent study!

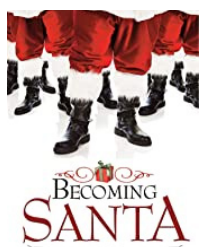

Sometimes even beloved stories have been heard so often and become so familiar that they no longer spark the wonder in us that they once did. The Christmas stories in the New Testament might fall into this category for some of us. Is it possible to hear them anew? I think so! That's what I'm hoping will happen for us all when we gather together around these stories in December.
-- Mitzi

Christmas Stories and Sweets with Dina Smith, Thursday, December 16th at 3:00 pm in the Music Room. Join Dina for some delicious Christmas stories with cookies and hot tea and cider!

Christmas Carol Hymn Sing, Wednesday, December 29th at 3:00 pm in the chapel
