AT YOUR SERVICE

by Kim O'Donnell, Life Enrichment Director

The arts have always been a vital part of the lives of Trezevant residents. In delving into a bit of background regarding the arts, I reached out to resident, Missie McDonnell as her name kept surfacing during a recent luncheon with ArtsMemphis Executive Director, Elizabeth Rouse. Missie, a former Junior League of Memphis president, was presiding when she learned of a program in Winston Salem, NC. While visiting Winston Salem, Missie met Phil Hanes, Jr. CEO Hanes Corp. and advocate for the arts. Mr. Hanes told Missie about an arts council started there which had been very well received.

Returning to Memphis, Missie shared information about the arts council to her Junior League contemporaries and the Memphis Arts Council was founded. This non-profit eventually became ArtsMemphis, the only organization in Shelby County dedicated to serving and supporting the non-profit arts sector. ArtsMemphis operates a grant program and also connects artists and organizations to each other and to community partners. Since its inception in 1963, the non-profit has distributed over $87 million to artists and arts organizations. In 2021, they distributed funds to over 46 organizations.

Trezevant will be hosting many of these recipients on Tuesday, August 30th across the campus. Performing groups such as AngelStreet, Cazateatro Bilingual Theatre Co., Hattiloo Theatre, IRIS Collective, PRIZM Ensemble, Memphis Jazz Workshop, Memphis Symphony Orchestra, TN Shakespeare Co. and Theatre Memphis. Also participating are Gary Beard, University of Memphis Fellows, Playhouse on the Square, and the Memphis Black Arts Alliance.

This showcase of exceptional performing and visual artists, sponsored by our supportive vendors, will offer fabulous music, dance and theatre while guests enjoy superb cuisine, wine and signature cocktails. Plan to traverse the campus to take in the sights, sounds and tastes of the best Memphis has to offer.

IN ST. EDWARD CHAPEL

by Rev. Julie McKenna, Lead Chaplain & Spiritual Services Director

Come join us as Rev. Walter Mischke leads a new Chaplains' Class—a study of Paul's remarkable transformation—the first 4 Wednesdays of the month—August 3rd, 10th, 17th and 24th at 3:00 p.m. in St. Edward Chapel.

On the 5th Wednesday of the month, August 31st, we'll enjoy a hymn sing at 3:00 p.m. Come ready to sing some old favorites!

Thought for the day:

You never know what kind of impact a random kindness can have on someone. Sometimes just a smile, a phone call to check in, a kind word or gesture at just the right time, can make all the difference in the world. Or, put another way, . . .

CELEBRATING THE ARTS & FASHION WITH GOOD FRIENDS- JOY & WELLNESS

Following two years of COVID and a long hot summer, it is time for us to have fun!

Year round, the Fitness and Enrichment Teams promote exercising our bodies and minds. The Chaplains' and Chapel Team offer services and classes to lift our spirits, and the Medical Team helps us stay healthy and help us heal when we are sick. All these things contribute to good health, but so does celebrating things that bring us joy.

THE GALA FOR THE ARTS 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, August 30. Enjoy spectacular musical and theatre performances, gourmet food and drinks throughout Trezevant, including the Reception Area, Music Room, Bistro, PAC, Snowden Dining room, Library, and the Terrace. This is a tribute to our exceptional arts community, and to our residents who support the arts. It promises to be a truly memorable night!

THE ARTS FAIR 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday, September 9. Representatives from the arts community will bring information about their upcoming performances and seasons for 2022-23. A great way to explore the Memphis arts scene from the comfort of your Trezevant home!

THE FASHION SHOW AND AUCTION 11:30 a.m. Thursday, September 22

See the latest fashions from Coming Attractions modeled by residents and guest models. Find treasures at the Fashion Show Auction. This will be the biggest and best fashion show ever, with profits to benefit the Hope's Garden renovation.

Please mark your calendars for these exceptional upcoming events. September promises to be filled with music, fashion, laughter, and celebration throughout the Trezevant campus!

REE DRUMMOND'S TOMATO COBBLER

Prepared by Kim O'Donnell

4 cups mixed cherry tomatoes halved, heirloom work well
1 heaping tablespoon tomato paste
2 teaspoons oregano
2 teaspoons thyme
4 cloves garlic diced
2 shallots sliced
3 tablespoons olive oil
Salt & pepper

Add tomatoes, tomato paste, spices, garlic and shallots to a 12 inch cast iron skillet. Drizzle in olive oil and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Toss to combine and set aside.

Biscuit Topping

1 ½ cups all purpose flour
½ cup fresh parmesan grated
1 tablespoon bake powder
1 teaspoon oregano
1 teaspoon thyme
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup cold salted butter cubed
¾ cup buttermilk
Fresh basil

For the drop biscuit topping: Combine the flour, Parmesan, baking powder, oregano, thyme and salt in a food processor and pulse a few times to combine. Add the butter and pulse until the dry ingredients and the butter are mostly combined. (If you do not have a food processor, this can be done with a pastry cutter.) Drizzle in the buttermilk and pulse (or stir in with a wooden spoon) until the mixture just forms a dough. Be careful not to overmix, as the biscuits will become tough when baked if you do.

Using 2 large spoons, drop ¼ cup-sized balls of dough on top of the tomato mixture. Transfer to the oven, then bake until the biscuit topping is golden, and the filling is hot and bubbling, 24 to 26 minutes.

Remove from the oven and let stand for 5 minutes. Garnish with fresh basil and serve.
